

Living Deep:
The Hard Work Of Maturity
2 Peter 1:1-11
March 16, 2014 Kemptville CRC
"Make every effort..."

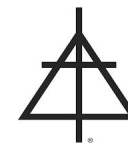

- My baptism (which happened in _____) means:
- How can we say that baptized people are "Royalty"?
- What does the baptism font symbolize when it is on the stage @ church?
- What does it symbolize when it is at the entrance @ church?
- How can we possibly suggest that "a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ" begins already here on earth?
- Making your calling and election "sure" (2 Peter 1:10) means.....
(can you see the connection to Matthew 7:24-27?)
- "Glenda's Longest Swim"
 - there's no treading water as a believer;
You either come _____ in your relationship with Jesus
Or you _____
- 2 Peter 1:5-7: faith, goodness, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness, love.
 - Is it a surprise that the list begins with "faith" and end with "love"?
 - How do we approach the other items in the list:
 - master them, one by one? Or....
 - see them as the full extent of Christian maturity? Or.....
 - If you were writing a list that exemplifies Christian maturity in 2014, what items might you include on it?
- To what degree will my growing maturity help secure my eternal destiny?

MY QUESTION

Living Deep:
The Hard Work Of Maturity
2 Peter 1:1-11
March 16, 2014 Kemptville CRC
"Make every effort..."

- My baptism (which happened in _____) means:
- How can we say that baptized people are "Royalty"?
- What does the baptism font symbolize when it is on the stage @ church?
- What does it symbolize when it is at the entrance @ church?
- How can we possibly suggest that "a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ" begins already here on earth?
- Making your calling and election "sure" (2 Peter 1:10) means.....
(can you see the connection to Matthew 7:24-27?)
- "Glenda's Longest Swim"
 - there's no treading water as a believer;
You either come _____ in your relationship with Jesus
Or you _____
- 2 Peter 1:5-7: faith, goodness, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness, love.
 - Is it a surprise that the list begins with "faith" and end with "love"?
 - How do we approach the other items in the list:
 - master them, one by one? Or....
 - see them as the full extent of Christian maturity? Or.....
 - If you were writing a list that exemplifies Christian maturity in 2014, what items might you include on it?
- To what degree will my growing maturity help secure my eternal destiny?

MY QUESTION